Kristin Lobron

Creative Economies Specialist

Former USAID EG Officer (GS), former COP on trade show project, 25 years experience, specialize in creative economies

kristin@bglobalxdesign.org

Linkedin

Contact

25 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

Kristin is the founder of B Global by Design, an association of global creative and design organizations supporting advocacy, peer learning, knowledge creation, fund management, ESG & supply chain programs, and amplification of arts & design from under represented communities. She is a former business development specialist focused on strategies, technical proposals, and program design (capture/ design). As well as a former COP for the Afghanistan Trade Show Activity (2018-2020). Kristin has conducted monitoring and evaluation reports, and created multi-media communication campaigns for development organizations. Areas of specialization: creative economies, ESG, trade, general agriculture, supply/ value chain, WASH, general economic growth/ ecosystem development, generalist financing for development, and related areas. Former EG Officer (GS) with a $40 million portfolio of volunteer programs, PIO with World Bank Doing Business, trade platforms,

Skills & Expertise:

Program/Project Management; Grants Management; Localization / Capacity Strengthening; Proposal Writing; Stakeholder Engagement; Private Sector Engagement; Agriculture & Food Security; Strategic Planning

Sectors of Work:

International Development; Economic Growth; Trade & Investment; Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs

Languages Spoken:

English

etc.

JOIN US

contact@wice.org.

WICE